Description:

There's more to life than working forty hours a week to survive in our society. And that's what this book is all about. Americas Awakening shows where humanity stands and what it must do to fulfill its potential. Join the author as he analyzes the American lifestyle through clear eyes, to outline problems, and explain solutions. Presents earthly truths and wisdom, encouraging readers to think and awaken so they can change themselves and the world. Tells his own story of how he left his life as an average, middle-class man to pursue the truth and reshape his life. This story is for the employee tired of the status quo, the college student questioning society's norms, and the thinker searching for answers. It's for anyone who wants to find wisdom and open their eyes to a better world with Americas Awakening.
